

Privacy Policy

We are committed to protecting the privacy of our users. This Privacy Policy outlines how we collect, use, disclose, and safeguard the personal information obtained through our website.

Information Collection:

We may collect personal information, including but not limited to, name, contact information, and details related to tax inquiries when users engage with our website or submit information through forms.

Use of Information:

The information collected is used to facilitate communication between users and tax offices. We may share necessary details with our partner tax offices to ensure a seamless and personalized experience in responding to inquiries.

Data Security:

We prioritize the security of your information and employ industry-standard measures to protect against unauthorized access, disclosure, or alteration of personal data.

Third-Party Disclosure:

We do not sell, trade, or transfer your personal information to third parties without your consent. However, we may share information with trusted partners working on our behalf to provide better services.

Your Choices:

Users have the option to withhold or provide personal information voluntarily. However, choosing not to provide certain details may limit the services we can offer.

Review and Update:

Users can review, update, or request the deletion of their personal information by contacting us through the provided contact information.

Changes to the Privacy Policy:

Privacy Policy

We reserve the right to update this Privacy Policy to reflect changes in our practices. Users are encouraged to review this page periodically for any modifications.

By using our website, you agree to the terms outlined in this Privacy Policy. If you have any questions or concerns about our privacy practices, please contact us at info@mytaxguide.org
